Students' Feedback Analysis Report on Teaching, Campus and Infrastructure

Session: 2021-2022

A Report

Students' feedback on teaching, Campus and Infrastructure for the academic session 2021-2022 were collected in offline mode and analyzed. Total 37 no. of students were responded in the survey. The survey conducted based on 21 questions. Most of the students' expressed their satisfaction regarding teaching related questionnaires such as quality of teaching, preparation for classes, timely completion of syllabus, ability to communicate etc. students' are also agree with eco-friendly campus but not satisfactory with the proper waste management system in the College. Regarding infrastructure, such as library, laboratory, play ground, availability of common room etc, most of the students' express their satisfaction where as facilities like computers, ICT enabled room, internet are not up to the mark as evident from the analysis report. NSS activities, extension activities and carrier counseling are also satisfactory in the college. The grievance redressal system is transparent and excellent as evident from the report. Students' are strongly agreed with the administrative support. The analysis was placed in IQAC committee meeting dated 20.09.2022 for discussion.
